

MEDIA RECYCLING PROCESSOR

Pack Manufacturing Media Recycling Processor is designed to help growers conserve growing media by recycling used materials. This machine uses a mill type processor to break up roots and dislodge potting soil. A cleated incline conveyor delivers the media to the processor. After the material is processed it continues onto a vibrating screen that separates the unwanted portion and allows the balance to drop onto another conveyor for reuse.